

Stakeholder Solutions

None of us are as smart as all of us, so sometimes the best guide to your future is to ask others for their guidance. Amárach has extensive experience of working with senior decision makers to explore and understand their network of influencers, advocates and competitors in order to map a way forward that is comprehensive and inclusive. Do you know what your key stakeholders expect of you and your organisation in a rapidly changing environment? We can help you find out.

The Future of the Irish Charities Sector

Customer Requirements:

to understand and map the role of the charities sector in Ireland over the next twenty years, to inform policy making, planning and future priorities.

Research Approach:

Amárach's team conducted a series of one-to-one in-depth interviews with senior decision makers in the public and private sector alongside surveys of the general public and employees working in the charity sector.

Research Output:

the findings were published and launched by Charities Institute Ireland* and used to inform a number of key decisions regarding taxation, regulation and succession planning for the sector out to 2037.
